

Call for application: Student Assistant – Centre for European Research in Maastricht

CERiM seeks to recruit one student assistant from February 2016 – June 2016.

The main responsibility of the student assistant would be to manage and update on a regular basis the CERiM website. Therefore strong preference is given to students who show relevant experience and knowledge in web design and can independently provide content on the basis of the ongoing activities at CERiM.

Other responsibilities of the student assistant include:

- Assist with the organisation of seminars/conferences/meetings/workshops
- Promote research events organised by the Centre
- Support the Centre's research coordinators & scholars in their organizational/research activities

Excellence in written English is a primary requirement and the academic success of the candidate will be considered.

This is a 0.1 fte position.

Students who are interested are invited to contact CERiM coordinators Vigjilence Abazi (v.abazi@maastrichtuniversity.nl) and Johan Adriaensen (j.adriaensen@maastrichtuniversity.nl)

Please send a CV, overview of your grades to date, and a motivation letter by the 22nd of January (5 PM)
