

THE CULTURE AND POLITICS OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS

Student workshop

Maastricht University, European Studies (BA ES)

Monday, 22 October, 10.00am-17.30pm

Maastricht University

Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Grote Gracht 76, room 0.07

10.00-10.05

Jens Lachmund

Welcome and opening

10.05-10.55

Session 1

Framing Issues – Shaping Policy

Chair: Emile Naudé

Bernadette Böllhoff, Svea Grünkorn

Framing Fast Fashion. The global textile industry from a social constructionist perspective

Martijn Jeurissen, David Wright

Soil Erosion as a Policy-Problem in Europe

11.05-12.20

Session 2

Risk and the Precautionary Principle

Chair: David Wright

Christian Hempel, Ioana Petrescu

EU's Precautionary Principle in Policy

Femke Caers, Cherie Igbinomwanhia

Risk Society and Global Health. The WHO in the Ebola outbreak 2014

Kevin Flynn, Keiko Ohtake-Gordon

Assessing Risks associated with Glyphosate

■ Lunch break

13.20-14.00

Session 3

Humans and Animals

Chair: Svea Grünkorn

Hari Pérez, Lysiane Copin

The Invasion of the Grey Squirrels

Ok Qing, Lukas Tieke

Sustainability of Animal Raising Practices

14.10-15.25

Session 2

Debating Nuclear Technology

Chair: Lysiane Copin

Gonzague de Chestret, Eduardo Bodo

Nuclear Risk Management in Belgium

Emile Naudé, Pierre Schmit

Public Protest: Negotiating Nuclear Risk

Adriano Gomez de Mayora, Javier Sanchez

Nuclear power in the French Society

15.50-16.40

Session 4

Citizens as Volunteers and Consumers

Chair: Svea Grünkorn

Abigail Opher, Blixa Baun

Urban Gardening: Motivations to reconnect with nature

Chiara Sarra, Marta Cubo

Are You Ready to Change? EU campaign about single-use plastic bottles

16.45-17.00

Final Discussion/ Evaluation of the Module

Please make sure that you have access to internet (smartphone or laptop via wireless) during this session: At the end of the meeting you will be asked to do the formal course evaluation online!