

Task of Academic Staff of the Graduate School Advisory Board (GSAB)

Tasks of GSAB Staff members include the following:

- To provide the Director of the GS with support and advice concerning the training and supervision of PhD candidates;
- To assist the GS Academic Coordinator in the updating and evaluation of the GS training programme;
- To advise and support the GS Director in the monitoring of progress of PhD candidates by for example providing feedback on Research Plans (submitted in month 6 of the PhD trajectory) and attending CAFE meetings (end of year 3);
- To provide feedback and advice on regular items on the agenda of the GSAB (such as advice on the admission of external and visiting PhD candidates, selection of candidates for schemes such as PhD in the Humanities and CSC scholarships, the GS annual report, and general GS policy).

Members of the GSAB represent one of the four research programmes of FASoS and collaborate with the representatives of the other programmes, the GS Director, the Academic Coordinator, and the PhD representatives. GSAB members are at the level of Assistant Professor or higher, and have some experience in PhD supervision. Appointments are for a two-year term. Reappointment is possible. The yearly remuneration for the position is 50 Solver hours.
