

Humanities Lab

Leiden University Faculty of Humanities Honours track

The Humanities Lab, the honours track of the Faculty of Humanities of Leiden University, is coming to Maastricht! The Humanities Lab students are looking to broaden their horizon and to expand their knowledge. Both the city of Maastricht and the Limburg province have a lot to offer, and the students are keen to find out exactly what that is.

Their academic programme starts on Saturday 31 October. In the morning programme the history, culture, religion, and economic situation in Limburg will be discussed. In the afternoon, the students will visit Maastricht University to learn more about the language culture of the region. Prof. dr. Leonie Cornips and four other speakers will host a lecture series about various aspects of this topic.

programme 13.00 to 15.00

Location: Turnzaal, Grote Gracht 90-92 Maastricht

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| Prof. Dr. Leonie Cornips | ● Language culture in Limburg. |
| PhD Lotte Thissen | ● Language cultural place-making and |
| | ● belonging in Roermond, Limburg. |
| PhD Nantke Pecht | ● The use of coal miner's speech in Eisden |
| | ● (Belgium): Initial findings. |
| Lysbeth Jongbloed | ● The language use of Frisians on social |
| PhD Candidate | ● media. |
| PhD Jolien Clijsen | ● Language practices in a nursing home. |

Universiteit
Leiden
Geesteswetenschappen

Humanities Lab