

TRAINEESHIP

Brussels

Kreab always seeks to be the best in our field, and we are looking for excellent people in the market to further reinforce our service offer. We are seeking to recruit a dynamic trainee to join our consulting team for an internship for 6 months. If successful, the internship will be transformed in a contract of unlimited duration.

We are looking for a person to assist the competition policy practice in its monitoring of a wide variety of topics and preparing reports, briefings and research notes for clients.

Kreab is a leading international communications consultancy and has been in Brussels since 1990. We have a team of around 50 EU Affairs specialists in the Brussels office and we are an international multi-lingual team, based in the heart of the European quarter, with a world-class portfolio of clients. Our EU practice coordinates our activities across Europe in a variety of sectors.

The selected trainee would start as soon as possible.

Specific requirements include:

- Strong organisational and time management skills
- Capacity to collaborate effectively within an international team, requiring both cultural flexibility and a team-spirited approach.
- The capacity to summarize and communicate clearly, both orally and in writing.
- A capacity to build networks and gather intelligence.
- Fluent English and thorough knowledge of French or German, preferably both active and passive.
